

REGULATIONS GOVERNING EXEMPTIONS FROM FINAL EXAMINATIONS

1. Seniors with honor grades - A's and B's - in a major subject may substitute an approved independent-study project for the final examination in that subject.
2. Project ideas must be submitted to teachers and approved by April 18. A list of students with approved projects will be posted the week of April 28.
3. Those working on projects will be relieved from normal class assignments from May 12 through June 6. After reporting to their teacher, they may be permitted to work in the library during the regular class periods of the project subject.
4. Honor students are eligible for only one project substituted for a final examination.
5. Projects are due on the date of examination from which exemption is granted.
