COMMUNICATIONS:

Mr. Sincaglia presented and read the following communications:

1. A letter from Mrs. Carol Greengrove:

"I would like to express my admiration for the Humanities course offered to students at Nutley High School. Three of my four daughters took this course, and all of them found it extraordinarily helpful in college.

"My youngest daughter graduated from NHS last year. She discovered, as her sisters had before her, that her college humanities course does not have nearly the perspective and depth of the NHS course. The high standard and volume of essays and papers required at NHS sharpened the girls' writing skills, and the seminar system taught them to work independently as well as in a group. They found they were far better prepared to tackle college work than most of their peers.

"I do feel that the teachers and administrators responsible for sustaining such an outstanding course of study at Nutley High School should be commended."

2. A letter from Marion Crecco, Assemblywoman, Essex County, referring to her concern over the proposed school takeover legislation.
3. A letter from Anthony J. Iannarone, President, Board of Trustees, The Nutley Free Public Library, requesting that the Board deed the strip of land that is currently leased to the Library annually.
4. A letter from John V. Kelly, Assemblyman, 30th District, concerning new legislation which protects persons serving without compensation on boards of religious, charitable and educational organizations and also which provides immunity for volunteer workers of non-profit organizations.
5. A notice from the Essex County Educational Services Commission cancelling a meeting scheduled for April 21, 1987 and re-scheduling it for April 23, 1987 at 5:00 p.m.
6. A notice from the Essex County School Boards Association of the Annual Meeting to be held on Thursday, May 21, 1987.

Mrs. Goodson presented and read the following communication:

7. A letter from UNICEF expressing appreciation for all the work done on behalf of UNICEF children. The contribution received from Nutley was among the largest of the group contributions.
