Committee Reports

Trustee Del Tufo  -  Facilities Committee
Trustee Casale  -  Finance/Budget Committee

Trustee Casale requested to allow the public to address the Board. No Board Members raised opposition.

Trustee Williams  -  Policy Committee

Other Items of Concern

Resident Mike Riccioni addresses the Board and appealed to the Board to change the budget, specifically removing the Oval lights.

Trustee Viola responded stating all previous funds spent on the Oval Project Reconditioning has been with donated or grant funds.

The forum became an open and amicable discussion between the public and the Board.

Resident Jerry Parisi addressed the Board and stated he did not support the Oval lights at the current time. He also asked if the funds were not spent on Oval lights could they be spent on an English teacher.

Resident Neil Henning addressed the Board and stated the Oval lights represent excess spending in the budget. He asked the Board to show restraint and not use the funds for the Oval lights.

Resident Ken Reilly asked various questions on the budget, specifically on the budget for energy.

Resident John Haligan stressed the importance of academic items in a budget rather than Oval lights.

Mr. Zarra stated that there are many academic programs being addressed such as new teaching staff, technology, an autism program along with many capital projects. Many other programs such as advanced placement testing, various classes, clubs and activities have been added. He also stated that the District has grown drastically in the past few years with the support of the Board and community and each day the importance of academics are stressed.

He summarized by stating children are first and the District attempts to be better everyday.

Resident Luisa Frey Gainor stated that the budget must be marketed properly and volunteered to assist the Superintendent.
ADJOURN

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 8:36 PM on a motion by Trustee Casale, seconded by Trustee Kuchta and unanimously approved by voice vote.

Respectfully submitted,
