HEARING OF CITIZENS

HEARING OF CITIZENS

Resident Terry Quirk, representative for the Nutley Parent Advocacy Network (NPAN), made several suggestions for the way to communicate Special Board Meetings. She also handed out to the Board information on a training site for teachers regarding the prevention of teen suicide and spoke very highly about the information provided.

She also mentioned that NPAN feels that the district is resistant to better measures in the special education area. She said that students need the services and should be receiving them otherwise they may be forced to take different measures.

Resident Jacqueline Imhoff asked the Board the reason why they settled so early with Tri-Tech for 2.7 million dollars before arbitration.
